Terms and Conditions

- For the session March 2021 in the context of COVID pandemic, a revised process is being implemented.
- The number of registrations accepted is reduced. For Sanitary reasons, 40 candidates maximum by level. Registration priority will be given to AFD students enrolled in French classes since 2020. The registration will end once the registration quota has been reached (first come, first served basis).
- The registration and payment procedure only take place at the AFD Dhanmondi office (Test Centre). The registration form must be fully completed, and only cash payment at the AFD Dhanmondi office will be accepted. The registration will only be considered valid once the payment is completed. No refund will be granted once the registration is completed.
- Two weeks prior to the examination, the student/candidate must collect, from AFD Dhanmondi office, his/her Attestation d'inscription and his/her Convocation which must be presented on the day of the tests. Access will be denied without these documents.

Temporary Office hours for collecting the documents: Monday to Saturday from 10 am to 4 pm

Contact: registration@afdhaka.org

- Being a national examination, the examination dates of oral and written tests cannot be changed.
- You must strictly follow the exams schedules and instructions. Failure to do so would cancel your right to take the test.
- You can only bring pen(s) inside the Test Centre. Do not bring any personal effects, handbags/bags.
- All the candidates must strictly follow the COVID-19 safety protocol: compulsory temperature check at the entrance, using hand wash sanitiser, social distancing, and wearing a face mask at all times. You will be requested to leave AFD premises after the written tests. You will have to return back 15 minutes prior to your oral test.
- AFD reserves the right to cancel/postpone the examination if situation demands.

I have read and understood the above terms and conditions. I will strictly comply with the COVID 19 safety protocol.
