

Tests and Diplomas

DELFDALF

DELF (Diplôme d'études en langue française) and DALF (Diplôme approfondi de langue française) are official qualifications awarded by the French Ministry of Education (Centre international d'études pédagogiques, CIEP) to certify French language competence of candidates from outside of France.

Four skills are evaluated for each of the six diplomas (A1, A2, B1, B2, C1, and C2): listening, speaking, reading, and writing. Alliance Française is the only test centre in Bangladesh for all DELFDALF examinations.

TCF AND TEF

TCF (Test de connaissance du français): Alliance Française de Dhaka is an examination centre for TCF Canada (Test de connaissance du français Canada). The TCF Canada is a French language proficiency test that meets the standards of Immigration, Refugees, and Citizenship Canada (IRCC). TCF Canada results are accepted for economic immigration or for obtaining Canadian citizenship.

TEF (Test d'évaluation du français): Alliance Française de Dhaka is an examination centre for TEF (Test d'évaluation de français). The TEF is an international benchmark test that measures your level of French.

Higher Studies in France

Campus France is a public institution promoting French higher education abroad and welcoming international students and researchers to France. In addition to managing scholarship details and the alumni network, the Campus France desk provides information helping students develop their goals and complete the formalities. It assists with the application assessing the recognition of the documents and sending the information to the chosen institution, ultimately managing the enrolment process up until the visa request.

The Alliance Française

The Alliance Française is a worldwide network of about 1,100 associations spread over 130 countries. It aims to promote cultural exchanges with France, spread the French language, and foster a better relationship. Every year, about half a million students come to the Alliances Françaises around the world. Every Alliance Française is a non-profit-making association governed by a locally-elected Executive Committee composed of voluntary personalities.

Alliance Française de Dhaka has been at the heart of French cultural exchanges in Bangladesh since 1959, and it offers more than 60 years of expertise in teaching French. The curriculum is based on the Common European Framework of Reference for Languages recognised worldwide and sanctioned by the French Ministry of Education.

Alliance Française de Dhaka is supported by the contributions of its members, of its esteemed sponsors and benefits from the support of the French Embassy. Thanks to these generous contributors, Alliance Française de Dhaka can undertake a large variety of courses and cultural activities.

Good Reasons to Learn French

The world language: Spoken by more than 220 million people, French is the second most widely learned foreign language after English.

The language for the job market: Communicating in French is an excellent asset in the international job market. Many international organisations such as the UN, EU, UNESCO, NATO, Red Cross use French as either official, administrative or working language.

The language of culture: French is the international language of cooking, fashion, theatre, visual arts, dance and architecture. French is the language of Édith Piaf, Hugo, Jules Verne, Marie Curie, Molière, and Zinedine Zidane.

The language for travel and immigration: The ability to speak even a little French makes it so much more enjoyable to visit Paris and other regions of France. Furthermore, immigration candidates for Canada can also avail significant advantages if they can speak French.

The language for higher education: French can open up study opportunities at renowned French universities and business schools. French institutions consistently figure prominently in nearly all worldwide rankings.
